Jesus is talking about "Those who believe" and "They who are given" so that Jesus was not including Martha as a "those" or a "they. It wasn't until the late 's, that England developed a machine for spinning wool. Despite lingering whispers and a dark, smoky image, billiards was becoming a sport for the masses. Why can't we have some room? It was the industrialization of billiards and the competition for profits that spurred the many changes that would transform the game. And God breathed into the man's body so that the man became a living person.
