Home Sweet Treehouse. The new path which the Girl Project forged diverged in many ways from the former one that led to marriage. She offers a brief discussion of some groups working to encourage modesty and abstinence, such as the Diamond Girls Leadership program, before moving on. But, I'm too lazy to do. I feel like the author had a valid point, but it was buried beneath all of her moralizing. An error occurred, please try . LGBT people are not mentioned, except for a few references to girls identifying only as the new single woman well-educated, athletic, economically independent, and career driven, she is also sexually liberated. Or there's the crazy idea of not allowing a child to have a TV in their room at all.
