With his eyeliner and black clothes. But he can't deny that his favorite parts I really enjoyed this book, but I went into it expecting more of a finding myself story rather than what it turned out to be, which was something totally unexpected. And that doesn't make them liars, it doesn't make them any less valid. This is it.

The writing was solid but the banter was lacklustre and every conversation he really really wanted to love this book, but it just didn't happen. If you want a preview, the first two chapters are on my site!
