As suggested in the back, I think I'll probably end up reading again as I continue myself on this journey of masculine discovery. Let your Father Show you the way.

CommunityReviews.TheIreallyenjoyedthisbook. Yet, what an opportunity to savor the truth and life Eldredge captures within these pages. Like I said, I gave the debut novel four stars since it was lacking some things on what it was supposed to do more so than grammar or sentence structure - which the book was very devoid of any errors actually. That we are "true sons of a true father.

Makes sense to me, but I understand that concept carries a lot of political baggage.
