As many people of all ranks as I have spoken to have said to me: the comedies did not succeed, and particularly the big one [Il rapimento]. Anche gli arabi hanno i loro sogni ed esigenze.

According to Mamone Firenze e Parigi 197n. Burg has a fairly standard left-leaning perspective. These letters ended up being the only bridge not just to his origins, but above all to his own identity. However, it soon became evident that the scope of the content of these letters called for a differentiated approach and so the editor commissioned me to translate the complete set.

Questi fenomeni non avrebbero grande importanza se non avessero avuto, secondo lui, un'importanza. But Burg argues that whereas the US expects to "meld the previous identities of its members in an American oneness" the European model creates a "civil political entity" that preserves "all the previous identities of its various members".
