The typeface is a good size for early readers and illustrator Axel Scheffler has given pen and ink attention to every page, perfectly in tune with the theme. And not to give any spoilers - but what Debbie has done with Lydia Bennet's character is truly spectacular. Carla King.

Great read for readers, even better read for all those writers out. Continuer

Another intriguing "out there" kind of book from Text

Publishing - who always manage to find the curiously brilliant - this is the story of "A", who for some reason that is never explained but seems totally believable, wakes up every day in the body of a new person. Gilad Soffer.

Waitapu will live with me for a long time. Patricia Bawden. So they decide to start a local newspaper.
