Take time to thank God for each member of the family He has given you. As Christians our hope is in Christ and eternity in His arms. I believe that with Jesus, there is always hope. If I clenched my fist, may it be only in prayer. So you have a crappy life and just when it gets good he's like forget you're gonna make your life miserable until you're as miserable as me. The scripture quoted is for Christians, to encourage us. He wants to take us from strength to strength; from glory to glory. Do they hear you express gratitude to the Lord and to others for both little and make a list of individuals who have blessed or touched your life in some way. Do you praise your husband to his relatives and yours?
