You're not following any authors. Learn. Walt Disney is a great example of a visionary who suffered repeated financial setbacks and business disasters and yet persevered with an unfaltering belief in his vision. Anyone who has reached greatness is fanatical about the values upon which their business stands.

Is there something you can share with the rest of us that we can begin using today? We tend to take our unique gifts for granted because we assume everyone does what we can. Entrepreneurs 4 weeks ago.
